Dear Don:

Thank you for attending the services this past week-end at Central Church of Christ. I thoroughly enjoyed getting to meet you and only regret that we did not have more time to converse seriously. I would be interested in receiving any material that succinctly discusses the differences between your convictions and mine. This might be the beginning point for a continuing conversation that could be a profit to both of us.

To give you an even greater insight to the approach I take to God's word and the realities of our time, I have asked that some of our Herald of Truth radio broadcasts be included with this letter. If you find things you would like to discuss further in any of this enclosed material, I'll be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
